From CMP 2003 Rule Book

8.11 Springfield/Military Bolt Rifle Match

The Springfield/Military Bolt Rifle Match is a CMP Games event that takes place during the annual National Matches. Any affiliated CMP club or other organization may conduct CMP Springfield/Military Bolt Rifle Matches.

8.11.1 Course of Fire

The course of fire for the National Springfield/Military Bolt Rifle Match is the As -Issued Military Rifle Match, Course A (Table 6). Springfield/Military Bolt Rifle matches conducted by other match sponsors may be either Course A or Course B (Tables 6 or 7).

8.11.2 Rifles

All rifles used in Springfield/Military Bolt Rifle Matches must be as -issued U. S. Model 1903 Springfield rifle series, U. S. Model 1917 rifles or U. S. Krag rifles that comply with Rule 6.2.4 or other as-issued military rifles that comply with Rule 6.2.5.

8.11.3 Ammunition

Match sponsors may issue ammunition or permit competitors to use their own ammunition. If the match sponsor issues ammunition, all competitors must use the ammunition issued.

8.11.4 Equipment

Competitors may use spotting scopes for shooting or scoring. Scopes do not need to be turned away from the target during the rapid-fire stage. Cloth, canvas or leather shooting jackets may be used. Standard military-issue web or leather slings or slings of this same type are permitted. Shooting gloves or mitts and ground cloths or shooting mats may be used.

8.11.5 Refires

No alibis or refires for rifle or ammunition malfunctions are allowed during any stage of this match. A rapid fire stage may be refired if there is a range alibi.

8.11.6 Squadding and Coaching

Whenever possible, match sponsors must arrange competitor squadding in Springfield/Military Bolt Rifle Matches so that experienced and new shooters are grouped together on the same firing point. Coaching is permitted and experienced shooters are encouraged to coach or assist new shooters.
